BLAINE IN NEW YORK.

He Begins His New York Canvass at Rochester.

He Makes a Point From a Recent Speech of Bayard's.

Mr. Hill Gives Satisfactory Assurances to Democrats.

Claiming That His Friends Will Work for Cleveland.

Blaine at Rochester.

ROCHESTER October 23.—The city gaily added to day with republicans from all over the country. Senator Hiscock, J C M Depew arrived early this morning and James G Blaine at 12 30 a party were received at the Central met by a committee of 100 people and bled at the depot. Blaine spoke to at 3 o'clock at Franklin square. It was raining slightly at the crowd was very large.

BOSTON, October 24.—Hon. James Blaine spoke here to night. He said in part:

MR CHAIRMAN—Hoping to be excused for your kind and too flattering words of introduction and to the manner of the reception the statement made by Mr. Bayard in a speech two weeks ago. I do his exact words. He said: "I have yet to think of the progress of the United States since the tariff has been a cycle, and what the consequences." Here are some figures I believe to be reliable. They come from a high authority Mr. Edward Atkinson of well known, who is not a blind stand-patter and an honorable man. From 1870 to 1887 the population of the United States increased 35 per cent, but in the same time the dairy products of the United States increased milk and all that is covered by dairy increased 75 per cent. In the Western States the products of corn increased 112 per cent, the production of wool increased 100 per cent, production of pig iron increased 285 per cent, the construction of railways increased 223 per cent. What has been the result of all the population increased in so small proportion to all these forces which are needful to men's It proves to you that the country making more than the people of the country number can consume.

In reply to Mr. Bayard my first remark is that it is a great deal better for [illegible] to have more than they can consume than to have less than they can consume. Mr. Bayard seems to think it is an evil and a ill the wealth of country increases more rapidly than population. I don't. I confess quite shocked Mr. Bayard's diffidence for my unreasoning has been that record of the simple rules of political economy where a nation is increasing in population more rapidly than in property must soon be suffering, but where the production of property outruns that of increase in population it means the nation is growing powerful day by day and great.

Mr. Bayard has endorsed Mr. Atkinson as a statistician and as an economist. I have to use Mr. Atkinson's figures to tell Mr. Bayard where the large portion of increase of wealth in the United States has gone under the present tariff. Mr. Atkinson stated in that since 1865 the wages of all overseers and other specially skilled workmen have advanced 108 per cent that the wages of the average mechanic, carpenter, machinist and the have had an advance of 90 per cent that factory operatives and others in the grades of skill in mechanical have advanced 78 per cent, and the wages of common laborers 66 per cent. I will please observe these are not increase over the wage rates of some in countries, but over the wages in our own country a quarter of a century ago, and that these advances directly from the protective tariff. Bayard will see then from the answer he endorses that this large increase of wealth has not gone merely to a man already wealthy, but that it has in a larger degree than was ever before known in the history of this or other country into the pockets of the workingmen. If I had been searching witnesses by whom the value of the to the workingmen of the country, I established beyond a doubt I have summoned Mr Bayard and Atkinson to the stand.

Bayard further gives public warning that if we do not take care we shall have in this country as much in seven years as we shall need in twelve. Well that is the last thing that I alarm the American people. I fear shows above all things our desire to shorten the hours of labor.

Gov Hill on the Situation

SYRACUSE, N. Y. October 23.—Gov. Hill to night closed a speech in these words: "They tell you a secession in the party when the party in the state never united than at present. They Governor Hill's friends are President Cleveland and that Cleveland's friends are kinding Hill. It is all bosh. The of the state administration are of the national administration. all, let us set aside all feeling like Macaulay's fell words shoulder to the pollers and will place the Empire state in column for Cleveland and

Those who intend to buy tickets to the Rock Island banquet on Friday evening are requested to purchase them not later than the afternoon of to-day. It is necessary that the committee should inform the proprietors of The Antlers of the number who will be at the banquet to-day. It is hoped that there will be a good representation of the people of this city present. The committee on the banquet has forwarded invitations to railroad officials and state officers and officials and prominent business men throughout the state. The banquet will be the most notable affair of the kind ever given in the city.

The democratic factional fight in New York will probably do much toward securing a Republican victory in that city. "It takes a thief to catch a thief," is an old adage, and with democrats watching democrats illegal voting will be hardly possible. The probability of a Republican victory materially improves the probability of a Republican victory.

Mr. Cooper is growing stronger and stronger daily, and it is becoming more evident every day that no more fortunate choice could have been made at Denver. Not a single man who has personal character and his opponents are at a loss to find something which they can point to his disadvantage. Those who never had any doubt of his election and the majority now seem to point to, have never been in error.

As will be seen in another column the Hon. Thomas M. Bowen has been called to address Republican meetings in Kansas during the campaign. Mr. Bowen is a forcible speaker and will do good service in the cause of Republicanism in the Sunflower state. He will speak in Colorado Springs on the evening of the 30th inst. Let everybody turn out and hear him.

The Record-Union of Sacramento says: "The Republicans have made a net gain of two Congressmen in Ohio, one in Indiana, one in Illinois, one in Iowa, one in Kansas, one in Nebraska, one in Colorado, one in Nevada, one in California, one in Oregon, one in Washington Territory, one in Dakota, one in Montana, one in New Mexico, one in Arizona, and one in Utah. Milwaukee Correspondence.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 16.—Solomon Juneau, the first mayor of Milwaukee, was a prominent and notable figure. He was a Canadian by birth, and [illegible] became [illegible] to Wisconsin. He was a man of intelligence, a man well informed, [illegible] and [illegible] opinions. He was of the great American fur company. [illegible] was feared by the savages, while [illegible] they knew he was honest with [illegible] for the Canadian Republicans of [illegible] and [illegible] Scotch [illegible] [illegible] opposed [illegible] among Opera. He stood six feet in his stockings, straight as an arrow, but with [illegible] years he [illegible] on a portly [illegible] presence [illegible] with his [illegible] being [illegible] a well formed head, and his [illegible] open countenance was lit with a pair of dark [illegible] eyes. Juneau kept a trading store, and it is related that if he wanted a basket [illegible] a bushel of wood, he would order the [illegible] out of the trust that were always hanging about the store, to go and get the desired [illegible] [illegible] to [illegible] although [illegible] had [illegible] the same thing [illegible] by [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]
